

CSPO enLIGHTeNING LUNCHES

Join the Consortium for Science, Policy and Outcomes for quick, edifying lunchtime presentations and discussions. Each enLIGHTeNING lunch will include pizza, a 20-minute presentation, and 20-minute discussion.

Science in Multiethnic Democracy: The Role of Kenyan Research and Educational Institutions in 2007 Post- Election Conflicts

Matthew Harsh

Center for Nanotechnology in Society
Consortium for Science, Policy and Outcomes

Wednesday, February 18, 12:00pm, COOR 5536

Future Spring 2009 enLIGHTeNING Lunches

Joe Herkert, Lincoln Associate Professor of Ethics and Technology, School of Applied Arts and Sciences, ASUP, March 18th, Ethical Challenges of Emerging Technologies

Others to be scheduled

For more information, contact cspo@asu.edu or visit www.cspo.org

A research unit of the

